

First Aid Supplies

Buyers during this time of uncertainty First Aid equipment supplies are needed throughout Australia, so here is your golden opportunity to pickup a great small business that you can run from home anywhere in Australia and grow it into a great profitable business.

The business was established approximately 30 years ago and is currently operated part time by the owner while also working a full-time career in another occupation. As a result, there are expansion opportunities to grow the business and increase profits. Part of this expansion is with the newly launched website designed to incorporate an e-commerce platform for online sales.

The business supplies assembles standard and customised marine, workplace and personal First Aid Kits. These kits are available for sale Australia wide on a wholesale and retail basis.

They also provides a self-check refill service for organisations wishing to save money and check their own kits. Checklists are provided to the customer; orders are then placed via email and refill items are couriered direct to customers.
